The participant or designated common law employer, when appointed by the participant, must meet the following criteria in order to be the CLE:

Common Law Employer (CLE) Requirements and Responsibilities:

1. Be at least 18 years of age or older.
2. Complete all forms in the employment forms package and return the completed forms to your VF/EA.
3. Make decisions about the best way to meet your needs, receive and use goods and services and then judge how those goods and services worked for you, making changes as needed.
4. Collaborate with your service coordinator to develop your individual service plan based on your medical, social, functional and educational needs and goals.
5. If enrolled in budget-authority model of service, determine how your individual budget will be spent by developing your spending plan. Use your individual budget responsibly; your spending plan must reflect your assessed service needs identified in your service plan.
6. Recruit, hire, manage, and dismiss your DCWs.
7. Train your DCWs in providing services that are described and authorized by your individual service plan.
8. Establish a mutually agreeable schedule for the DCW, that meets your needs.
9. Decide how much to pay your DCW within the OLTL established wage limits and authorize their paychecks by reviewing and signing timesheets.
10. Provide your DCW with feedback to let them know if they are doing things the way you want.
11. Submit all approved purchases, invoices and timesheets to your VF/EA.
12. Demonstrate the required skills and abilities needed to self-direct DCWs without jeopardizing your health and safety, or designate a representative to assist you.
13. Develop and implement a back-up plan.
14. Participate in required training sponsored by OLTL or your VF/EA.
15. Contact your service coordinator to request a new assessment or to change your spending plan as your needs and goals change.
16. Secure qualified vendors.
17. Verify the qualification of DCWs and vendors prior to the person or entity rendering a waiver-funded participant-directed service and complete ongoing qualifications as needed according to waiver requirements.
18. Notify your service coordinator and your VF/EA when you suspect or are aware of issues of Medicaid fraud or financial abuse related to the delivery of participant-directed services.
